Thursday, July 17. 1707.

London, July 17.

THE last Paris Mercure, has in it the following Ordinance of the Duke of Anjou; which serves to shew the Number and establish'd Names of all the present Spanish Regiments of Foot.

Whereas many great Inconveniences have risen, from all my Regiments of Foot losing their ancient Appellations, and being call'd by the Names of the Colonels that command them, or by the Names of the Colours with which they are cloath'd; which has occasion'd an Ignorance of the Time and Antiquity of their Establishment and other Consequences that are or may be prejudicial, especially in Case of a Reform or Disbanding; and whereas therefore 'tis convenient that every Regiment now on Foot in Spain, or that may be hereafter establish'd, should preserve its Name, and not change it when it changes its Colonel or the Colour of its Cloathing; after having caus'd the first Raising or Establishment of every Regiment to be trac'd and fix'd as truly as is possible, I have determin'd, that all the Regiments which in this my Royal Ordinance are express'd by the Names of the Colonels who now actually command them, shall for the future for ever be distinguish'd and call'd by the Names subjoin'd to those of their said Colonels.

Since several Ill-minded Persons have for some time Counterfeited the true GOLDEN SNUFF, so well known for its particular Virtue in Curing several Diseases of the Breest, Eyes, or Ears, specified in the Bill of Directions, the Author (to prevent Peoples being any longer impos'd upon by such Spurious Stuff) hath been at the trouble and charge to Stamp every Paper with the Figure of an Elephant, seal'd up with the same Impression, a Latin Inscription being round the Figure; since which many Substantial Gradate have been very desirous to Sell it by Retail, because the true may now be easily distinguished from the false, it is theretore to be had at the several Places following, viz. Mr. Dodd at Mafon's Coffee House in Bartholemew-Lane behind the Royal Exchange, John's Coffee-House in Swinns Alley near the Royal Exchange, Mr. Hilliard Toyshop at the Ship over-against the Royal Exchange-Gate in Cornhill, Mrs. Orborn at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstons Church in Fleetstreet, Mr. Butler at Barnards Inn-Gate in Holborn, Stationer, Paris Coffee-house in Suffolk street near Pall mall, St. Alban's Coffee-house in St. Alban's-street near Pall mall, Great Queen-street Coffee-house in Westminster, Pon's Coffee-house in Cecil's Court in St. Martin's Lane, Smyrna Coffee-house in Pall-mall, Mrs. Foster at the entry of the Hospital Gate in Smithfield, Mrs. Little Reeve Bookseller in Norwich, Mrs. Rebecca Harris in Burgate, Canterbury, Linen-Draper, besides the Places mention'd in our list, at 1 s. a Paper. Any other Persons living more remote, and willing to Sell it, may have the same Advantage as the others have, and their Names or Places of abode inserted, applying themselves to the Author at the Green Balcony in Durham-yard in the Strand, London.

The Famous Effex for all manner of Aches and Pains, or Strains, Weakness, or Loss of the Use of the Limbs, Lameness, the Sciatica, Numbness, Trembling, Palfy, Convulsions, or Cramp in any part. It is a noble Medicament, far above the Sphere of ignorant Pretenders, and doth that in one Day, which filthy greasy Oil, or Ointments, could never do. It neither wets like Water, greases like Oil, or fouls the finest Linnen, but momentarily cures in, and suddenly takes away the oldest Grief even to a stiff-ness, after a 1000 other things have been us'd in vain. Sold at John's Coffee-House in Swinns-Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstons Church in Fleetstreet, price 2 s. the Viol.

The History of Greece. Vol. I. Containing the space of about 1600 Years, from the first Plantation of Greece, to the Peloponnesian War. By Tho. Hind M. A. Fellow of Lincoln College in Oxford. A Work collected with utmost Fidelity and Care from the Original Writers who are all along quoted to support its Authority. The whole examin'd and in all necessary cases corrected by the very Learned Dr. John Porter Author of the Archaeologia Graeca, which 'tis hoped will be a Conviction to all the Readers of the Grecian History that no new one can Exceed it, since a judicious and faithful extract from the Ancient Authors is the best that any Modern Writer of it can pretend to, and this is what is perform'd in this Work. The 2d Volume which compleats the Work will be Publish'd next Term. Printed for A. and J. Churchill, T. Childe, R. Knaplock and J. Sprint.
